CLUBS MUSIC WOMENS WORK

It takes great strength to build your life up square. With your accepted thought, and hold it there. It is easy to slip back and sink. So hard to live ahead of what you think.

"What shall I do to be forever known?"
Thy duty ever.

"Thus did full many who yet sleep unknown."
Oh, never, never!

Think's thou perchance that they remain unknown?
Whom thou knowest not?
By angel trumpets in heaven their praise is blown.

Divine the lot.
"What shall I do to gain eternal life?"
Discharge aright.

The simple dues with which each day is rife.
Yea, with thy might.
Ere perfect scheme of action thou devise.

Will life be fled?
While he who art a conscience cries
Shall live, though dead.

—SCHILLER.

AN AID TO NATURE

There's no greater help to Nature's reconstructive power than Nuxferone. As a regulator, it performs a valuable service. It is of general reconstructive benefit to the system, building up wasted tissue and stimulating the failing forces.

Girls! Lemons Whiten the Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents shake well, and you have a quarter pint of armwhiten and delightful skin bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, arms, neck and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use it: lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—Advertisement.

Wholesale Arrests of Swindlers Expected to Follow Border Raids.
DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 30.—Wholesale arrests of alleged confidence men are expected to follow recent raids in El Paso and other cities involving the operations of a fake race track swindling game with agents in various Texas cities, federal agents announced here today. Postoffice inspectors operating in secret recently raided the offices of a confidence gang in El Paso seizing the paraphernalia of a dance game said to have used the Jimenez race tracks as a base.

Federal agents here are in communication with postal inspectors in Denver in an attempt to connect the men arrested there with oil stock frauds in Texas. Local inspectors so far as is known, have not yet definitely identified the Denver lunno gang as being connected with oil swindlers in this state but agents here are certain that the gang has operated in this section along other lines.

CUB REPORTER NOW PROFESSOR

Former World Man Recalls Days When the Paper Was Young

C. E. Rogers, associate professor of industrial journalism in the Kansas State Agricultural college, on The World editorial staff in 1914 and 1915, yesterday dropped into The World office after looking in vain for a fourth street entrance, and chatted about old times.

"I was sporting editor in those days," he said. "Being sporting editor meant not only handling sport, that is writing and editing a column of sports every day besides handling all state and national staff which came in by telegraph and mail. That was only what went with the title of sporting editor. But my official capacity of sporting editor didn't begin until about 5 o'clock in the afternoon unless there happened to be a ball game that day which had to be covered."

"Before my donning of the official title I was the city reporter staff. I covered city hall, the commercial club, police, special assignments, farm news, and the morgues between 9 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon."

"We printed the Sun in those days. I used to write an occasional editorial for the Sun. And of course I had to help out on the Sunday paper."

"In addition to all this I had a string of out-of-town papers which I served as sport correspondent, being official scorer for the Western association."

"No, that's not quite all. I used to handle a publicity bureau for Henry Kendall college."

"No, I wasn't any smarter than they make them nowadays. Nor did I work any harder. The truth is that I didn't do anything quite as well as it ought to be done. I bluffed a good deal, sluffed a good deal, guessed some, and wrote the blumest copy the editor ever handled."
